

Call for Papers
American Risk and Insurance Association
2012 Annual Meeting
August 5 - 8, 2012
Minneapolis, MN

You are encouraged to submit a proposal to present research findings at the 2012 meeting of the American Risk and Insurance Association (ARIA). Papers on any risk or insurance related topic are welcome. Specific subject areas include, but are not limited to, insurance economics, risk management, insurance law or regulation, insurance company operations, corporate governance, public policy, health care, international issues, retirement, or employee benefits.

Executive summaries (not exceeding three pages) that focus on the purpose, expected results, and importance of the research may be submitted. Completed papers are preferred. The names and affiliations of all co-authors, with telephone, fax numbers, and e-mail address of the designated contact person, should be provided on a separate cover page attached to the proposal. Proposals from doctoral students are encouraged.

The deadline for submission is February 17, 2012. This deadline will not be extended.

Proposals may be submitted to the ARIA Vice President and 2012 Program Chair:

Laureen Regan
Fox School of Business and Management
Temple University
lregan@temple.edu
Telephone: 215-204-7264

Proposals must be submitted electronically as a file attachment in Acrobat (.pdf) or Word (.doc) format.

Questions or suggestions concerning the program can be directed to Laureen Regan. Other questions about the meeting should be directed to the ARIA Executive Office by phone at (610) 640-1997, fax at (610) 725-1007, or e-mail at aria@cpcuiia.org. For more information about ARIA or the annual meeting, visit ARIA's website at <http://www.aria.org>

Notes: Papers already accepted for publication should not be submitted. Authors will be notified by e-mail of the program committee's decision regarding their paper in mid-April 2011.
