Assistant/Associate/Full Professor Position in Insurance and Risk Management

The Department of Finance at the University of Cincinnati is seeking candidates with expertise in insurance and/or risk management for an open-rank position beginning Fall 2015.

Duties include maintaining an active and significant research program, teaching in our undergraduate and graduate (MBA, MS-Finance, and Ph.D.) programs, and contributing service to the Department and the College. The department and college have a strong commitment to high-quality teaching and research aimed at top-tier journals in insurance, risk management, and related fields (including finance and economics).

JOB QUALIFICATIONS:
Minimum qualifications include a Ph.D. in insurance, risk management, or a related field (including finance and economics) by the time of appointment. Candidates for Assistant Professor who are currently working toward completion of a Ph.D. degree will be considered. Candidates for Assistant Professor must demonstrate potential for high-quality teaching and research. Candidates for Associate or Full Professor must have an established record of quality teaching and research commensurate with rank and a significant on-going research agenda aimed at top-tier journals in insurance, risk management, and/or related fields (including finance and economics).

APPLICATION PROCEDURE:
Applicants should provide a curriculum vitae, research papers, three letters of reference, and evidence of teaching potential (teaching evaluations from previously taught courses or a statement of teaching philosophy for those candidates who have not yet been evaluated). Suitable candidates will be selected and interviewed at the 2015 AFA meetings in Boston held on January 3-5, 2015.

Applicants should submit materials electronically to: www.jobsatuc.com and search for Position #213UC6876.

Any materials that cannot be sent electronically should be mailed to:
