Assistant, Associate or Full Professor Level Position in Actuarial Science
Department of Risk, Insurance and Healthcare Management

JOB QUALIFICATIONS:

The Fox School of Business at Temple University seeks a research scholar in the field of Actuarial Science. We strongly prefer candidates at the Associate or Full Professor level, but we will also consider qualified candidates at the Assistant Professor level, if they meet our criteria. Qualified candidates are required to hold a PhD or foreign equivalent in Actuarial Science, Risk Management, Statistics, or another appropriate field related to Actuarial Science. Preference will be given to candidates who are Fellows of either the Society of Actuaries or the Casualty Actuarial Society. Candidates should also have an established record of high quality research with publications in the highest quality, top tier journals and/or books through major publishers in the discipline. Evidence of excellence in teaching and a willingness to work with students are required. Salary is highly competitive and commensurate with qualifications. The position is available starting September 2015, pending final budgetary approval.

Applications should include (a) cover letter, (b) full curriculum vitae, (c) a brief statement of current and future research interests, (d) evidence of excellence in teaching (e.g., evaluations), (e) at least one working paper, and (f) the names and contact information for three references.
