

Proceedings of the 1979 Risk Theory Seminar

April 12-14, 1979

Athens, Georgia

- 1. Insurance and Loss Prevention: Producer's Liability
Karl Borch, Norwegian School of Economics
- 2. The Capacity of an Insurance Company in an Efficient Capital Market
Neil A. Doherty, University of Alberta
- 3. Guidelines for the Purchase of Non-life Insurance
Leonard R. Freifelder, Temple University
- 4. A Stochastic Model for Loss Reserving
Charles A. Hachemeister
- 5. Risk, Return, and Industry Effects: Evidence for Life Insurance Stocks
Scott E. Harrington, University of Pennsylvania
- 6. The Effectiveness of the NAIC Early Warning System for Predicting Failures among Property-Liability Insurance Companies
Robert A. Hershbarger, University of Missouri-Columbia
- 7. Insurance Pricing, Investment, and Regulation under Uncertainty
George M. McCabe, University of Alabama
Robert C. Witt, University of Texas at Austin
- 8. On the Theory of Risk and its Applications
Teivo Pentikäinen, Helsinki
- 9. Stochastic Models with Memory for Seismic Risk Evaluation
David Shpilberg, Instituto de Estudios Superiores de Administración, Caracas
Michael Pinedo, Instituto Venezolano de Investigaciones Científicas, Caracas
- 10. Workers' Compensation: Risk Retention vs Risk Transfer
James S. Trieschmann, University of Georgia
Patrick G. McKeown, University of Georgia