

Proceedings of the 1983 Risk Theory Seminar

June 13-15, 1983

Helsinki, Finland

- 1. On the Variance of Pure Premiums as Estimated from Fitted Models
Stuart Klugman, University of Iowa
- 2. Econometric Forecasting of Property Liability Insurance Paid Claim Costs
David Cummins, University of Pennsylvania
Scott Harrington, University of Pennsylvania
- 3. Risk Evaluation when Failure Rate Depends on Two Variables
H. D. Christiansen, University of Kansas
- 4. The Optimal Deductible for an Insurance Policy when Initial Wealth is Random
Harris Schlesinger, Vanderbilt University
Neil Doherty, University of Illinois
- 5. Insurance and Market Equilibrium with Credibility Adjusted Premiums and Industry Data Sharing
Mark V. Pauly, Wissenschaftszentrum Berlin and Northwestern University
- 6. Modelling Insurance Markets with Moral Hazard & Imperfect Information
Joseph Ferreira, Massachusetts Institute of Technology
- 7. Agent Regulation: Issues in Compulsory and Compensatory Regulation
Barbara Beliveau, University of Connecticut
Arthur Goldsmith, University of Connecticut
- 8. Worker's Compensation: Benefits & Duration of Claims
Richard J. Butler, Brigham Young University
John D. Worrall, National Council on Compensation Insurance
- 9. The Underwriting Cycle in Property Liability Insurance
Milton E. Smith, Brigham Young University
Fikrey S. Gahin, University of Utah
- 10. An Economic Analysis of Retroactive Liability Insurance
Michael L. Smith, Ohio State University
Robert C. Witt, University of Texas at Austin