

Proceedings of the 1984 Risk Theory Seminar
April of 1984
University of Southern California, Los Angeles, California

1. A Financial Theory of the Insurance Firm

Richard MacMinn, University of Texas at Austin

Robert Witt, University of Texas at Austin

2. Some Perspectives on Pension Variation and Funding: Financial Management Considerations

Frank Thompson, University of Cincinnati

Anju Ramjee, University of Cincinnati

Balasubramani Ramjee, University of Cincinnati

3. Optimal Funding and Investment Policy for Defined Benefit Pensions Plans

Terence Langetieg, University of Southern California

4. Economic Theories of Regulation Applied to the Property/Liability Insurance Industry

Stephen D'Arcy, University of Illinois

5. A Random Coefficients Model of Interstate Differences in the Impact of Rate Regulation on Auto Insurance Prices

Scott Harrington, University of Pennsylvania

6. Optimal Insurance and Mean-Variance Efficient Portfolios

Stephen Buser, Ohio State University

Michael Smith, Ohio State University

7. Market Insurance and Loss Prevention by Insurers

Harris Schlesinger, Vanderbilt University

Emilio Venezian, Venezian Associates

8. Life Insurance, Price Regulation and the Theory of Contestable Markets

Barbara Beliveau, University of Connecticut

9. Estimation of Classification Factor Relatives: A Modelling Approach

Leonard Freifelder, University of Connecticut

10. Taxation, the Law of One Price and Captive Insurance Companies

Neil Doherty, University of Illinois

James Garven, University of Illinois