

Proceedings of the 1988 Risk Theory Seminar

April 22-24, 1988

Howard University, Washington, D.C.

- 1. The Nonoptimality of Optimal Insurance
Harris Schlesinger, University of Alabama
- 2. Optimal Purchases of Insurance with Overlapping Risks
Paul Thomas, Washington University of St. Louis
- 3. A Statistical Model for Hospital Professional Liability Claims
Archer McWhorter, University of Houston
Raghuraman Iyer, University of Houston
- 4. Risk Theoretic Issues in the Discounting of Loss Reserves
Gary Patrick, North American Reinsurance
Glenn Meyers, University of Iowa
- 5. Expenditures on Lotteries: What do People say and what do they do? An Econometric Analysis
Gabrielle Brenner, Université de Montréal
Claude Montmarquette, Université de Montréal
Reuven Brenner, Université de Montréal
- 6. Simple Knightian Economics
Peter Locke, Tulane University
- 7. The Tax Deductibility of Premiums Paid to Captive Insurers
Li-Ming Han, University of Texas at San Antonio
Chin-Jen Lie, University of Rhode Island
- 8. Tying Life Insurance and Savings Decisions: A Multi-Period Expected Utility Analysis
Itzhak Venezia, Hebrew University of Jerusalem