

Thomas Berry-Stoelzle

Current Position

Associate Professor of Finance and Nationwide Faculty Fellow
Faculty Director, Vaughan Institute of Risk Management and Insurance

Academic and/or Industry Background

He received his Ph.D. from the University of Cologne in 2007 and held a faculty appointment at the University of Georgia before joining the faculty at Iowa.

ARIA Activities / Roles or Involvement

Thomas has attended most ARIA Annual Meetings since he joined in 2005 and has served on multiple ARIA committees over the years.

Memberships

ARIA, APRIA, RTS, AFA, AEA

Honors and Awards

For his research, Thomas received the American Risk and Insurance Association's Early Career Scholarly Achievement Award in 2017.

Research and/or Industry Interests

Thomas's research interests include Enterprise Risk Management, insurance company operations, and insurance regulation.

Statement of Goals for Office (about 150 words maximum please)

To ensure that ARIA continues to be a friendly, welcoming and supportive organization for all academics interested in risk management and insurance topics.