Statement of Goals for Office

ARIA has been the most important professional organization for insurance educators and one of the most vital organizations that connects insurance education with the industry. It is my honor, privilege, and commitment to serve ARIA and contribute to greater success of this organization.

My goals for being a member of the ARIA board are as follows:

1. Work closely with fellow board members in advancing the mission of ARIA
2. Facilitate and strengthen the relationship and collaboration between academia and industry through my network of connections
3. Contribute to development of strategies for ARIA as an organization in the post-COVID world where uncertainty is the only thing that is certain
4. Contribute to the development of future leaders for our organization and our industry
